IV SOCIETY'S REALM.

MANY FORMS OF WEATHER, DE- SPITE THE WARM WEATHER.

GERMAN GIVEN AT LAKESIDE.

One of the Most Delightful Entertainments in the History of This Popular Resort—Personal and Society Gossip.

Pink of the peach-tree, everywhere—Span for springtime memory;

Skin of the maturing passing fair;

And April gardens beyond the sea;

There's no withstandin' your sorcery!

Here and there, at this season of balmy air, one can see over the top of some brown wall, swathed in the green and purple of a giant wisteria vine, the blush of a blossoming peach-tree. But from a window in the third story they glow in splashes of soft pink amid the dingy brick walls and smoked chimneys.

On Fifth street a radiant peach-tree leans over the whitewashed fence and scatters every day "blossoms and dew-drops at the boughs' edge" on the dusty bricks below.

This has been an ideal week for weddings, and a great many have been solemned since Monday. On Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock Miss Rosa Catherine Hulst was married to Mr. William Trac-ters Mosby, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosina C. Hulst, Rev.
Father Waters officiating. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and cut-flowers. The ceremony was performed before an improved altar, banked with palm, on which stood silver candlesticks holding lighted wax candles. Pink sashas were also massed around the altar. The bride was dressed in a handsome gown of silver gray, with trimmings of turquoise and white chiffon. She carried veils. She had but one attendant, her sister, Miss Pearl Hulst, who was dressed in black satin and costly trimmings. The bridegroom was Mr. John Moore, of Baltimore.

Miss Moore is the daughter of Mrs. Bonie C. Hulst, and is a handsome blonde.

Misses, who is the manager of the office of the Dispatch, has a host of friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore left for an extended southern tour. On their return they will reside at 115 east Franklin street.

On Wednesday, at 9 o'clock, a very romantic wedding took place at "Shady-wood" on the Hermitage road, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clement Shafer. The bride was Miss Eva Lawson and the groom, Mr. George E. Jennings. Owing to the recent death of the bride's grandmother, the wedding was a very quiet affair, nearly relatives and the bridal party being present. The parlors of the Baudouine house were decorated in white green, and the ceremony was performed before an altar, banked with white flowers. The library was decorated in pink and the dining-room with a profusion of American Baudouine.

The bride was dressed in a gown of other white organdie over white taffeta, and white chintz roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Mary Lawson, wore white American beauty roses, and carried white taffeta. The bridesmaids were Misses Carrie of Danville, Lily Jennings, of Danville, and Mrs. George Andrew of Danville. The ushers were Messrs.
McCormick, of Danville; Mr. and Mrs.
Edmund Meade, of Danville; and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Oppenheimer, of Lexington.

There have been three evenings and all of them especially interesting. On Monday "Persia" was discussed, with Miss Mary Lewis
